

Outlineoffungi.org - Note 1

Outline published

The Outline of Fungi and fungus-like taxa was published in Mycosphere on 18 March 2020. This is believed to be the first entire outline of the Fungi and is a multi-authored paper with 157 authors. In such a diverse group and with so many co-authors, it was hard to maintain agreement. Of course not all authors agree with every arrangement in the paper and in some cases we published an alternative outline to satisfy conflicting opinions. The outline used in this webpage is extracted directly from this paper and any changes that will be made will be supported with notes. Mycologists are welcome to send the Head Curator, Nalin Wijayawardene any views and ideas to be published as notes after peer review.
